

Dennis DiNoia.

Dennis DiNoia, M.A.Ed., known to families around the world as Mr. D, is an educator, speaker, curriculum creator, and pioneer in student-driven learning. With more than 35 years of experience working with young people, from struggling students in dropout-prevention programs to high-achieving homeschoolers and every learner in between, he has dedicated his life to helping students develop one of the most essential skills for success: becoming independently responsible learners.

Today, Mr. D is the founder of Mr. D Math, a global online learning platform that has empowered tens of thousands of students to succeed in mathematics and beyond. His courses, workshops, and teaching methods emphasize independence, critical thinking, personal responsibility, and mastery through discovery. His approach has transformed families, inspired educators, and helped countless young people gain the confidence to direct their own learning.

He is the author of TEACH: Creating Independently Responsible Learners, a #1 international bestseller, and the forthcoming The Student Becomes the Teacher: Turning Test Anxiety into Confidence. In 2026 he gave the commencement keynote at the Florida Parent Educators Association graduation, spoke at Nasdaq and The TimesCenter in New York, and continues to host the A+ Parents podcast.

As a professional educator with a Master's Degree in Education, Dennis has spoken at homeschool conferences across the country, trained parents and teachers, and mentored countless students who credit his methods with helping them thrive academically, personally, and professionally.

Beyond teaching, Mr. D is a lifelong learner, musician, and performer who believes that discovering what you love and doing it with purpose is at the heart of a fulfilling life. His passion for helping young people uncover their strengths and step into their potential continues to drive everything he does.
